Unit 27 Communication systems

ı	A: This sounds great, doesn't it? The signal's really clear.
	B: Can you still get all of your favourite stations?
2	A: This is so frustrating! Why can't he just email me instead? Has he not heard of modern technology?
	B: I know, I know. But he doesn't have the image in digital format, and he needs you to see what it looks like. This is the quickest way.
}	In 200 metres, turn right and then left.
ŀ	A: Hello. Are you happy with your current gas and electricity supplier? If not, we car save you up to £100 a year—	١
	B: No, thanks! I don't talk to telemarketers.
	160 channels in widescreen high-definition, and there's still nothing to watch!
	Not another work email. It's Saturday morning! I need to turn this thing off!
,	A: Do you know what the football results were? The Internet's not working.
	B: Here, let's have a look. Pass me the remote control.
on 231 Ve 1bo	complete the following blog entry, which one of your classmates wrote for a page 139 of the Infotech Student's Book, by typing in the passive form clackets. In a February The had an interesting discussion about mobile phones in class today. Opinion (1) out whether they're a good thing or not. Despite the fact that mobile phones (2) are our lives more convenient (supposedly!), it's clear that we've become totally depet the class even use them to watch videos or listen to music.	of the verb on 231 We about The MA	a page 139 of the Infotech Student's Book, by typing in the passive form of ackets. In February In had an interesting discussion about mobile phones in class today. Opinion (1) and the passive form of the had an interesting discussion about mobile phones in class today. Opinion (1) and the passive form of the had an interesting discussion about mobile phones in class today. Opinion (1) and the passive form of the phones (2) and the passive form of the phones (3) and the passive form of the passive form o	ndent on the despite the fof the problem.
Ve beneath the hold him	a page 139 of the Infotech Student's Book, by typing in the passive form ackets. In February In had an interesting discussion about mobile phones in class today. Opinion (1) In out whether they're a good thing or not. Despite the fact that mobile phones (2) In ake our lives more convenient (supposedly!), it's clear that we've become totally depet the class even use them to watch videos or listen to music. In ey're expensive, too. Most people said they spent over £20 a month on their phone, one calls and text messages (3) In (include) in most tariffs these days. Part of the count. In the passive form of the potential health problems of mobile phones. Despite phones (5) In the passive form of the potential health problems of mobile phones. Despite phones (5) In the passive form of the pas	ndent on the despite the fof the problem the free pite all the vene really wo bow) until we
Ve benantalian in the later of	a page 139 of the Infotech Student's Book, by typing in the passive form ackets. In February In had an interesting discussion about mobile phones in class today. Opinion (1) and the point out whether they're a good thing or not. Despite the fact that mobile phones (2) are ake our lives more convenient (supposedly!), it's clear that we've become totally depet the class even use them to watch videos or listen to music. In ey're expensive, too. Most people said they spent over £20 a month on their phone, or the calls and text messages (3) and (include) in most tariffs these days. Part of the count. In ere was also some worry about the potential health problems of mobile phones. Despite phones (5) and (use) by children as young as five or six these days! The gist that the true damage done by mobile phones (6) (not know the count of the co	ndent on the despite the fof the problem the free pite all the vene really wo bow) until we on on one of the one o	a page 139 of the Infotech Student's Book, by typing in the passive form ackets. In February In had an interesting discussion about mobile phones in class today. Opinion (1) and the passive out whether they're a good thing or not. Despite the fact that mobile phones (2) aske our lives more convenient (supposedly!), it's clear that we've become totally depet the class even use them to watch videos or listen to music. In every real expensive, too. Most people said they spent over £20 a month on their phone, one calls and text messages (3) (include) in most tariffs these days. Part of the count o	ndent on the despite the for the problem the free pite all the control on the really work ow) until we (b)
31 Ve bolo har a se	a page 139 of the Infotech Student's Book, by typing in the passive form ackets. In February In had an interesting discussion about mobile phones in class today. Opinion (1) and the possive out whether they're a good thing or not. Despite the fact that mobile phones (2) are ake our lives more convenient (supposedly!), it's clear that we've become totally depet the class even use them to watch videos or listen to music. In every expensive, too. Most people said they spent over £20 a month on their phone, one calls and text messages (3) (include) in most tariffs these days. Part of the count of	ndent on the despite the for the problem the free pite all the control on the really work ow) until we (b)
Ve boot There had not held	a page 139 of the Infotech Student's Book, by typing in the passive form ackets. In February The had an interesting discussion about mobile phones in class today. Opinion (1) and the point out whether they're a good thing or not. Despite the fact that mobile phones (2) are our lives more convenient (supposedly!), it's clear that we've become totally depet the class even use them to watch videos or listen to music. The every reflective expensive, too. Most people said they spent over £20 a month on their phone, or e calls and text messages (3) (include) in most tariffs these days. Part of the count. The every reflective expensive expensive, too. Most people said they spent over £20 a month on their phone, or e calls and text messages (3) (include) in most tariffs these days. Part of the expensive expen	ndent on the despite the for the problem the free pite all the control on the really work ow) until we (b)